

“GE Open Day”: a day to discover Euromobil Group.

The editorial offices of four major Italian online magazine of architecture and design will be guests for a day of Euromobil Group, and will be able to learn all about the work of the important Venetian company.

Thursday, September 19 the Euromobil Group showroom and Désirée factory will open the doors to the editors of four of the most interesting Italian online magazine of design and furnishing.

There will be the Product Manager Luigi Lucchetta and the designer Roberto Gobbo to guide the guests inside the showroom and the production factory of Désirée, the line of sofas and upholstered of the famous Venetian group.

An exclusive day to get to know the history and work of a company that has been able to grow and change radically becoming one of the most important Italian industrial groups in the furniture industry.

The whole event will be covered live: you can follow the course of the whole day through the social channels of the Group and through the hashtag #GEopenday.

For further information:

euroacq@euromobil.it

Falzè di Piave, 16 settembre 2013

