

ELLE DECOR

ITALIA

The international design magazine on interiors and trends lifestyle architecture and art

+
SPECIAL
THE BEST OF DESIGN 2022

BACK HOME

NEW WAYS OF LIVING Designer's suggestions for rethinking the domestic space
HOLLYWOOD Overlooking the City of Angels, a mansion by John Lautner
ON LAKE MAGGIORE The house designed by Patricia Viel, tailored to her needs
MEXICO CITY On the edge of the metropolis, an architecture immersed in the landscape
IN MILAN Interiors between shadow and light, in a building by studio BBPR

EXTRA COMFORT

RITO

by Matteo Thun & Antonio Rodriguez for Désirée. Deep seating on a metal rod structure. Removable cover, available in fabric or leather. desiree.com by Valentini. Enveloping backrest and ergonomic cushions with button-effect stitching. To be complemented by the chaise longue. valentini.it

ETHOS

GREEN SYSTEM

by David Lopez Quincoces for Living Divani. Linear elements define the volumes, available in fabric or leather. Painted steel feet. livingdivani.it by Antonio Citterio for Cassina. Fluid, flexible and modular, distinguished by an aluminum exoskeleton that accommodates the upholstery. cassina.com by Jean-Marie Massaud for Poliform. Available in the linear or curved version, embellished with sartorial features and leather detailing. poliform.it

ESOSOFT

BRERA

Decisive and harmonious lines for sofas to be configured endlessly.
And chaise longue modules for maximum relaxation

Five suggestions for a home in perfect order. Clothes and accessories displayed or tucked away, stashed inside innovative storage elements

[1]

[2]

[3]

[4]

[5]

1. Freedhome by Caccaro is a system playing with space and volumes, comprised of functional and customisable elements. Pictured, Camerino, with patented U-shaped structure and doors that can be fully opened, attributes making it a real walk-in robe. caccaro.com

2. Stave for uninterrupted or corner solutions by Novamobili. Batten door and curved modules made of grey, light, honey and earth oak, or Canaletto walnut, and lacquered matte or oxidized. novamobili.it

3. Air, designed by Daniele Lago, has supports available in extra-clear glass, smoky grey or bronze, which accompany shelves and lacquered containers. lago.it

4. Cover Freestanding by Giuseppe Bavuso for Rimadesio. Linear configurations or with self-supporting corners and partitions. Made of aluminium with a bronze finish, glass doors and sides and faux leather accessories. rimadesio.it

5. Alterna is a customisable wardrobe by Zalf. Pictured, with City hinged doors and City Glass, walnut frame and burnished contours. zalf.com